

2017 Marketplace Information & Rules of Participation

*Upon arrival, participants must check in with the registration tent prior to setting up at the City of Dresden Park.

*Set up begins on Saturday, April 29 at 12:00 p.m. Early set up is not available due to other normal park activities. Tear down is immediately following event's end.

*Outdoor spaces are a maximum of 10'X10'. Most booth location will be on pavement. If your merchandise is breakable and you require a booth on grass, please indicate on application.

*Additional booth space can be requested and will accrue an additional charge for each 10 x 10 space requested on application.

*Booth space location will be determined by date of receiving application, entry fee and requested booth size. Event staff will have designated locations marked for participants. Participants cannot relocate without permission from event chairperson.

*Every effort will be made to divide booths into merchandise categories.

*All product categories must be listed on application.

*Only products listed on the application will be allowed for sale. The Tennessee Iris Festival request merchandise will be appropriate for a family oriented event. The event chairperson reserves the right to ask for removal of questionable merchandise. ANY fireworks, Confederate flags, silly string or spray paints of any kind are PROHIBITED.

*Participants can share a booth if indicated on application.

*Event will be held rain or shine. Canopy tents are allowed but must fit designated booth space. In the event of in-climate weather, the marketplace will be held in the old Dresden Middle School gym. Outdoor lighting other than street lamps will not be provided by the festival.

*Participants are responsible for Tennessee State Sales Tax.

*Items may be left on-site at the risk of participants. The Tennessee Iris Festival, the City of Dresden, or its chairpersons are not responsible for any loss, damage, or injuries.

*All trash must be removed from site area into nearby receptacles.

*No refund or show credits.
